COMMON ORDER: (Per Hon'ble Sri Justice A. Gopal Reddy)

The petitioners who are sons of one V. Varalakshmi, addressed a letter to the Hon'ble Chief Justice of Andhra Pradesh dated 03-06-2007 stating that their mother, Varalakshmi, aged about 34 years was kidnapped by one Avinash, the 5th respondent herein, about one year back and their father one Bhaskar lodged a complaint with Police Station, Chilakalguda, but the police failed to complete investigation and trace out their mother. The said letter dated 03-06-2007 and a copy thereof received on 08-06-2007 and 16-07-2007 respectively were taken up as the present writ petitions.

The counter-affidavit filed by the Inspector of Police, Chilakalguda Police Station discloses that on the complaint lodged by the father of the petitioners on 15-05-2006, a case was registered in Crime No.306 of 2006 under the head— Woman Missing on the same day and investigation was taken up. They have taken all possible steps to trace out the missing person, complete investigation and file necessary report before competent criminal Court.

Today, the alleged Varalakshmi and Avinash are present before the Court. The mother of the petitioner, Varalakshmi, stated that she herself willingly left the house due to family disputes between herself and her husband and was living with Avinash since all these days.

The learned counsel representing the learned Advocate General represented that the mother of the petitioners being traced out yesterday itself, police would file necessary report by producing the persons before competent criminal Court.

In view of the same, the police are directed to complete investigation and file necessary report before competent criminal Court on or before 31-12-2007.

Both the writ petitions are accordingly disposed of.
